

APPENDIX 1MASON'S MINNESOTA STATUTES OF 1927,
Section 4174

"In every place of employment the employer shall provide in each workroom thereof, proper and sufficient means of ventilation and shall maintain proper and sufficient ventilation. If excessive smoke, steam, gas, fumes, vapors, dust or other impurities are created or generated by the manufacturing process or handicraft carried on therein, in sufficient quantities to obstruct the vision, or to be irritating, obnoxious, or injurious to the health or safety of the employees therein, the rooms shall be ventilated in such manner as to remove them or render them harmless, so far as is practicable. If in the opinion of the Commissioner of Labor it is deemed necessary, he may order the installation of exhaust fans and other mechanical means of proper construction to effectively remove from the point of origin such smoke, steam, gases, fumes, vapors, dust or other impurities. If the removal of such smoke, steam, gases, fumes, vapors, dust or other impurities is, because of the nature of the process impracticable, the Commissioner of Labor may, if he deems it necessary to the health of the workers in any place of employment, order the isolation of such process or handicraft in a separate room or building."
